LETTER FROM THE INCOMING #1

Hello, my name is Jason Brovich, and I am the incoming #1 for Alpha Sigma Delta of Chi Psi. I'm a junior, majoring in Psychology, with minors in Spanish and Computer Science. I've spent this semester abroad in Copenhagen, Denmark, and I'm looking forward to my January return to Durham. When I first joined Chi Psi at Duke, I never would have imagined that I would be leading the organization, but I am beyond excited to be able to give back to an organization that has given me so much. I've had the opportunity to attend the two most recent Conventions (175 and 176), and that would not have been possible without the generous support of the ASD alumni. At convention, I went through Spencer Institutes for #4 and #1, which I believe prepared me for taking over as #1 in 2018. The network I have been able to form with brothers at other Alphas has given me a support system to share ideas and initiatives, to help improve our brotherhood at Duke.

As for Alpha Sigma Delta, even though I was not there in person, I am glad to report on some cool things going on in our Alpha. We held elections for all positions, including a new Executive Committee (as you may have guessed, since I'm writing to you). In addition, we had a brotherhood Paintball trip, participated in a Habitat for Humanity build with Chi Omega, hosted our Semi-Formal date function, and enjoyed brotherhood/sisterhood Breakfast for Dinner with Gamma Phi Beta, to name just a few events. And to top off the semester, we revived our annual Christmas party, which was a huge success. It was a great reminder of what it's like to have fun with your brothers, as finals come crashing down. It has been a long and successful year for Alpha Sigma Delta, and although we have been building towards Spring recruitment all semester, we are finally kicking it into gear to recruit our next class of Chi Psi gentlemen.

As we move into 2018 and the new semester, I am looking to engage you—our alumni—more than ever. If you're ever in Durham, please feel free to reach out; we would love to show you around and show you what Alpha Sigma Delta has become!
